Designed by menstruators, for menstruators.

Here are a few reasons why students LOVE Aunt Flow:

* Accessible Period Care

Our period product dispensers are ADA-compliant and free-vend, so no one has to use a quarter to get a product out of the machine and miss class time.

* Sustainable Products

Made with organic cotton, our products are safe for the body and the environment — no rayon, synthetics, or dyes. We're even Organic Cotton Standard (OCS) Certified and have plastic-free packaging!

* Legislation and Advocacy

Across the country, over 27 states and Washington, DC have passed legislation to increase period product accessibility in schools. Aunt Flow partners with student advocates and legislators to improve the lives of menstruators.

* Inclusive

Aunt Flow encourages everyone to be a part of the conversation. Everyone loves someone who menstruates. Our dispensers are thoughtfully designed to cater to diverse abilities, needs, and languages.

CLAIRE CODER,
FOUNDER & CEO

Founded in 2016, Aunt Flow is a certified WBENC woman-owned company headquartered in Columbus, Ohio.

“Hi! I’m Claire. I founded Aunt Flow after getting my period in public without the supplies needed. At 18-years-old, I dedicated my life to developing a solution to ensure businesses and schools could sustainably provide quality period products for free in bathrooms. After all, toilet paper is readily available to students, why aren’t tampons and pads? Since 2021, we’ve donated over 7 million period products to menstruators in need. I call this people helping people. PERIOD.®”
